Governor Brewer Appoints Charlie Bowles to Arizona Real Estate Advisory Board

Tucson, Ariz. (August 11, 2009) — Diamond Ventures, Inc. announced today that Charlie Bowles, Vice President of Marketing and Sales, has been named by the Governor as a member of Arizona Real Estate Advisory Board.

"We are extremely proud that the Governor selected Charlie to serve on this board," said David Goldstein, president of Diamond Ventures, Inc. "His vast experience in Arizona real estate and his enthusiastic and exceptional people skills will ensure that the board is extremely effective. I know Charlie will do a great job".

Mr. Bowles joined Diamond Ventures in 1999 after spending 11 years at Estes Homes, a leading production homebuilder. From 1985-88, Mr. Bowles was president of Cottonwood Homes, the operations unit for the homes at La Paloma in Tucson. From 1983-85, he was co-owner and vice president of Crain and Associates Management Co., and was responsible for managing and marketing 11 apartment communities in Tucson and the greater Phoenix area.

The Arizona Real Estate Advisory Board was established by the Legislature to provide the Real Estate Commissioner "with such recommendations as it deems necessary and beneficial to the best interests of the public. The board shall also provide recommendations on specific questions or proposals as requested by the Commissioner."

The board comprises of nine members appointed by the Governor. The term of office of each member is six years.
